

Global Collaborative Law Council

Auto-Renew Membership Payment Plan - FAQ

What is included?

Annual dues for GCLC Full Member (Voting) and Associate Membership (Non-voting)

What is required to establish Auto-Renew

A credit card or PayPal account is required. Your information will be securely stored.

How and when will I be charged?

On the date that you join or renew your membership, a credit card payment will be taken, or your PayPal account will be charged, and you will receive an e-mail receipt confirming payment.

Will I be notified in advance?

Yes! You will receive a reminder at least one month in advance of your payment processing.

What if my method of payment is no longer valid?

If we are unable to process your payment, you will be notified by email or phone. If your payment method is not updated within ten business days of notification, Auto-Renew will be de-activated and your annual dues must be paid by phone to GCLC's office 214-739-8900, or by completing the attached form: MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL.

Will my dues ever change?

You will be notified of any changes in GCLC's annual dues for Members and Associate Members.

May I cancel Auto-Renew?

Yes! You can cancel any time by e-mail to: info@globalcollaborativelaw.com, or by calling 214-739-8900. If you choose to cancel Auto-Renew, your GCLC membership will continue through the end of the current membership year that has been paid in full.