

GCLC Auto-Renew Membership Payment Plan

Terms and Conditions

GCLC has revised our membership payment system to give you the choice of automatically enrolling in a new plan that will renew 12 months from the date of your membership or renewal. for your Member or Associate Member dues, so that you can enjoy uninterrupted access to the benefits of membership.

On the date that you joined or renewed your membership, a credit card payment will be taken, or a member's PayPal account will be charged, and members will receive an email receipt confirming payment. Members will receive a notification at least one month in advance of dues payment processing.

A credit card or PayPal account is required. Should a credit card be declined, or payment through a PayPal account be declined, the member will be notified by email or by phone. If the payment method is not updated within 10 business days of notification, Auto-Renew will be de-activated and annual dues must be paid by phone to GCLC's office 214-739-8900, or by completing the attached form: MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL.

GCLC reserves the right to change annual dues for members and associate members. Members will be notified in advance of any change in the annual dues.
